

House of Representatives U. S.,

Washington, D. C., March 9th, 1888.

Hon D. M. Fox:

Dear Sir; Mr Storm my predecessor in Congress and myself are very much interested in the case of Geo. T. Haskins, one of your employees, and have to request that you give to his case a friendly, and if possible a favorable consideration.

I have seen the young man, and am of opinion upon examination you will find that he has a fair & satisfactory explanation of the charge against him. Give to him a just and friendly hearing and judgment as his career in life may depend upon your action.

Yrs. very truly;

[Abstract:] Relative to Mr. Geo. F. Heilig.

House of Representatives U.S.,
Washington, D.C.,
March 9, 1888

Hon. D.M. Fox:

Dear Sir:

Mr. Storm my predecessor in Congress and myself are very much interested in the case of Geo. T. Heilig, one of your employees, and have to request that you give to his case a friendly, and if possible, a favorable consideration.

I have seen the young man, and am of opinion upon examination you will find that he has a fair & satisfactory explanation of the charge against him. Give to him a just and friendly hearing and judgement as his career in life may depend upon your action.

Yours very truly,
C.R. Buckalew.
